Tickets go on sale for Popular Apparition Expedition: A stroll Through Plano's Paranormal Past

Tickets go on sale at noon Thursday, September 13th for the second annual Apparition Expedition. Last year, the inaugural event sold out fast, so this year, we're giving everyone fair warning.

A woman's scream. Shades open, doors unlock, chairs unfold - but there's no explanation. Many denizens of downtown Plano report strange occurrences in the area's historic buildings. Some claim they're haunted.

Now, just in time for Halloween, Plano residents will once again have a chance to experience the haunted history of downtown Plano on October 12th and 13th, beginning at 6:30 P.M. Tickets are $15.

This guided, 1.5-mile hike through historic downtown Plano will introduce attendees to the mysterious, the ghostly, and the darker moments of Plano's history. Hikers will get an exclusive peek at creepy corners, back hallways, and other out-of-the-way spots.

Make sure to join us for the After Party at McCall Plaza. There will be live music, drinks, food, and fun for all. We will also have a tarot card reader, palm reader and lipstick print reader on-site!

About Plano

Plano, Texas, is the largest city in Collin County with a population of 277,720 as of January 2017. Incorporated in 1873, the city is located 20 miles north of Dallas. Plano was recently named the third Best Run City in America by 24/7 Wall Street. The City offers a high quality of life that includes: nationally-recognized schools, award-winning parks and sustainability initiatives, designation as one of America's safest cities by Forbes magazine, and a wide variety of multi-cultural neighborhoods appealing to families, young singles and retirees. Plano is home and future home to the headquarters or regional operations of major international corporations such as Toyota, Liberty Mutual, JPMorgan Chase, Fannie Mae, FedEx Office, JC Penney, Dr. Pepper/Snapple Group, Rent-A-Center, Cinemark Holdings, Denbury Resources and Alliance Data Systems. The dynamic community features excellent restaurants, vibrant shopping and entertainment venues, a lively historic downtown district and active local arts scene. Easy access to DART light rail and major highways makes Plano a convenient place to live, work and visit. To learn more about Plano, go to our website at plano.gov.
