Council Member Not Running for Reelection

Deputy Mayor Pro Tem Angela Miner announced she will not run for reelection to the Plano City Council.

“It was a great honor to serve the people of Plano and our great City. I’m ready to move on to the next chapter of my life, devoting time to my family needs and commitments,” said Miner.

She served the Plano community for more than 20 years in a wide array of leadership roles on numerous PTA boards and President of the Plano ISD Council of PTAs. For her tireless devotion to the children of Plano she was presented with both the Texas PTA Lifetime Achievement and National PTA Lifetime Achievement Awards.

She is a past president of her HOA, a board member of the Plano ISD Education Foundation, an active member of the Plano Symphony Orchestra Education committee, the Women’s Auxiliary of Children’s Medical Center Plano, and Women Making A Difference In Plano. Angela is also an active member of the North Texas Pioneers Rotary club helping make a positive difference, not just in her community, but around the globe.

Angela also serves on the National League of Cities Public Safety and Crime Prevention Committee.

Angela was recognized and awarded the 2017 Immigrant Spirit Award – Recognizing an immigrant civic leader or elected official who has contributed substantially to the community or the region.

The City of Plano thanks Deputy Mayor Pro Tem Miner for her service and commitment to our community.
