Pop-up Concert on Historic Railcar Thursday Morning

Texas country music singer/songwriter Woody Lee will perform on the historic Railcar 360 at the Interurban Railway Museum in downtown Plano Thursday morning at 9:00 a.m. Lee is the first act in a very unique series of Railcar pop-up events. We get to hear great musicians and talk to them about their music and where they'll be playing while sitting on the historic train. The Interurban Railway Museum is located at 901 E. 15th St.

Lee, a Garland native, wrote a song for country music sensation Shenandoah and co-wrote with Tracy Lawrence. He is a featured performer at Texas Music Revolution and Rodeo this Friday and Saturday (March 29-30) at the Amphitheater at Oak Point Park. Headliners include Lee Ann Womack and Robert Earl Keen. This year will feature professional bull riding between musical acts. Tickets start at $12.50. khyi.com for tickets.
