Severe Weather Forecast for Saturday Forces Cancellation/Postponement of Plano Events

Due to the threat of severe weather Saturday, April 13, several Plano events have been cancelled or postponed.

Those events include:

- Great American Cleanup and After-Party. The safety of our volunteers comes first, so we encourage all volunteers to do their cleanup on their own time in safe conditions. Supply pick up will still take place Thursday, April 11 and Friday, April 12 at 4200 W. Plano Pkwy. Supplies must be returned by April 30. There will be a dumpster on site for litter collection.
- Tree Planting at Bob Woodruff Park is rescheduled for Saturday, May 4. The Texas Trees Foundation, the City of Plano and many other sponsors will plant more than 875 native trees. The “TreethePark” planting initiative will pay tribute to the history of Plano’s Quincentennial Bur Oak Grove with the help of several dozen volunteers.
- Easter Egg Hound Hunt at Oak Point Park and Nature Preserve has been cancelled.
