Plano Celebrates New Park with Community Party

Come join us for some great photo ops Saturday as the City of Plano officially celebrates it's newest Park, Windhaven Meadows with a community party.

Located at 5400 Windhaven Parkway, Windhaven Meadows is home to a state-of-the-art all-abilities playground, a five-acre dog park, hard surface trails, a spacious pavilion, water features and more. Plano Parks and Recreation is making this a fabulous day for our Plano community. Try Yoga and Tai Chi, take a tour of the trails with Plano running and walking clubs, enjoy arts & crafts with the Plano Public Library, and much more.

What better way to break in our new five-acre dog park than with a walk on the green carpet and a photo by the paparazzi? Meet the Children's Health therapy dogs and if you are looking for a new furry friend, Plano Animal Services will be on site with some great adoptable animals. Bring the kids to play yard games, including corn hole, Frisbees and hula hoops. Get fit, have fun and get to know your neighbors.

Please note: Water at the splash pad has been turned off while we work with the designer to evaluate ways to improve its surface, parts of which become slippery when wet. More information can be found on the Windhaven Meadows Park webpage.

Saturday's schedule is attached. We hope to see you Saturday!
