Plano Masonic Lodge Celebrates 125th Anniversary at Dickens in Downtown Plano

1903

The Plano Masonic Lodge is the oldest active community service organization in Plano. The Lodge will be celebrating their 125th anniversary by holding an open house during Dickens in Downtown Plano holiday festival on December 6 from 5:00 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. The lodge is located at 1414 J Avenue.

The historic Plano Lodge Hall was built on the ashes of the Moore House/Hotel. The Lodgeroom is adorned with the symbols of mysticism that are used to instill Masonic morals and principles. More than 100 photographs are displayed on the walls honoring the past Masters of the Lodge dating to 1894. They were the pioneers of Plano and early community leaders. Their family names grace many of our schools, municipal buildings and parks.

At 7:45 pm, a giant birthday cake will be sliced and shared with visitors.
