Plano Holds First Food Safety Summit

The City of Plano will hold its first annual Food Safety Summit on Monday, February 24 from 12:00 PM to 5:00 PM at the Plano ISD Sockwell Center.

Restaurateurs in Plano and surrounding cities are encouraged to attend this free conference. Several speakers will give short presentations on a variety of food safety topics from top food code violations and menu labeling to zero food waste and food allergens. Restaurant industry partners will have vendor booths.

The event is free but registration is required. The Plano ISD Sockwell Center is located at 6301 Chapel Hill Boulevard in Plano.

About Plano

Plano, Texas, is the largest city in Collin County with a population of 284,070 as of January 2019. Incorporated in 1873, the city is located 20 miles north of Dallas. Niche and AreaVibes recently named Plano as one of the Best Cities to Live in America. Forbes designated Plano one of America's safest cities. The City offers a high quality of life that includes nationally recognized schools, award-winning parks, and sustainability initiatives and a wide variety of multi-cultural neighborhoods appealing to families, young singles and retirees. Plano is home to the headquarters or regional operations of major corporations such as Toyota, Liberty Mutual, JPMorgan Chase, Boeing Global Services, Fannie Mae, FedEx Office, JC Penney, Rent-A-Center, Cinemark Holdings, Denbury Resources and Alliance Data Systems. Our dynamic community features excellent restaurants, vibrant shopping and entertainment venues, a lively historic downtown district and active local arts scene. Easy access to DART light rail and major highways makes Plano a convenient place to live, work and visit. To learn more about Plano, go to our website at plano.gov.
