Plano Adjusts Service Expansions

Due to the continued increase in COVID-19 cases in our community, the following service expansions have been adjusted:

- Summer recreation classes scheduled to begin on July 6 or later have been cancelled, except for online classes and those at High Point Tennis Center. Recreation staff will be contacting registrants to process cancelations and issue refunds.
- The Plano Public Library Browse, Grab and Go planned for July 6 is on hold. Current services continue, including porch side pickup of materials, computer access by appointment, online programs for all ages, and access to digital resources (eBooks, eAudiobooks, eMagazines, eNewspapers and databases).
- The Interurban Museum's reopening date of July 11 has also been postponed

SPECIAL CALLED CITY COUNCIL MEETING | June 30 – 5:30 p.m.

About Plano

Plano, Texas, is the largest city in Collin County with a population of 285,190 as of January 2020. Incorporated in 1873, the city is located 20 miles north of Dallas. Niche and AreaVibes recently named Plano as one of the Best Cities to Live in America. Forbes designated Plano one of America's safest cities. The City offers a high quality of life that includes nationally recognized schools, award-winning parks, and sustainability initiatives and a wide variety of multi-cultural neighborhoods appealing to families, young singles and retirees. Plano is home to the headquarters or regional operations of major corporations such as Toyota, Liberty Mutual, JPMorgan Chase Boeing Global Services, Fannie Mae, FedEx Office, JC Penney, Rent-A-Center, Cinemark Holdings, Denbury Resources and Alliance Data Systems. Our dynamic community features excellent restaurants, vibrant shopping and entertainment venues, a lively historic downtown district and active local arts scene. Easy access to DART light rail and major highways makes Plano a convenient place to live, work and visit. To learn more about Plano, go to our website at plano.gov.
