Aggravated Robberies

The Plano Police Department, in conjunction with other local law enforcement agencies, is investigating a series of Aggravated Robberies that are possibly related. The majority of the victims in these reported offenses are Hispanic and most have occurred during the early morning hours. One suspect was reported as wearing a light-gray or white-hooded sweatshirt. Attached is a photo of this suspect. The reports indicate that the suspects used pistols to commit the Robberies and property taken has been cell phones, keys, and wallets.

There are believed to be at least four suspects associated with these crimes and they are described as African-American males in their early twenties. The suspects are known to drive a white, four-door, 2001 Chevrolet Blazer and a black 2002-2009 Chevrolet Trailblazer. Photos of similar vehicles are also attached to this release. If you have been a victim of these suspects, please report this to your local law enforcement agency.
