Shooting Suspects Arrested

On September 10, 2020, Plano Police Officers were dispatched to a Shooting incident in the 100 block of Legacy Drive. It was determined shots had been fired from the parking lot into a black pickup truck, striking the occupant seated in the driver's seat. Another subject, who was walking to his vehicle, was also struck by the gunfire. The vehicle fled the scene before Officers arrived.

The victim inside the pickup truck was transported by Plano Fire-Rescue to a local hospital for medical treatment; the other gunshot victim drove himself to the hospital. Both subjects suffered non life-threatening injuries.

On September 13, 2020, Plano Police personnel executed arrest warrants and the suspects were taken into custody without incident. The suspects have been identified as 18-year old Xavier Alexander Aguirre, 26-year old Rani Bryanna Gamboa, and 25-year old Trevaughn Cortez Linnear. Aguirre and Linnear have been charged with two counts of Aggravated Assault with a Deadly Weapon and Gamboa has been charged with Tampering with Physical Evidence. Upon execution of a search warrant, nine firearms, $18,000 in cash, and approximately 2000 Tetrahydrocannabinol (THC) cartridges were recovered. Photos of the arrested subjects are attached to this press release.

This was some outstanding work by the Detectives of the Crimes Against Persons Unit identifying and obtaining arrest warrants for the suspects.

The investigation remains ongoing.
