If you are changing anything outside the envelope of the current building, including the facade, you must visit the Planning Department to discuss the potential requirements for site plan and/or plat review and approval. Considerations include, but are not limited to the following changes:

Height, floor area, or footprint of the building

Landscaping or screening

Vehicle parking, access, or circulation

Accessory structures (such as fuel dispensing stations, sheds, cell towers, dumpster screens)

Site boundaries

Fire lanes or driveways

Easements or utility locations

Façade

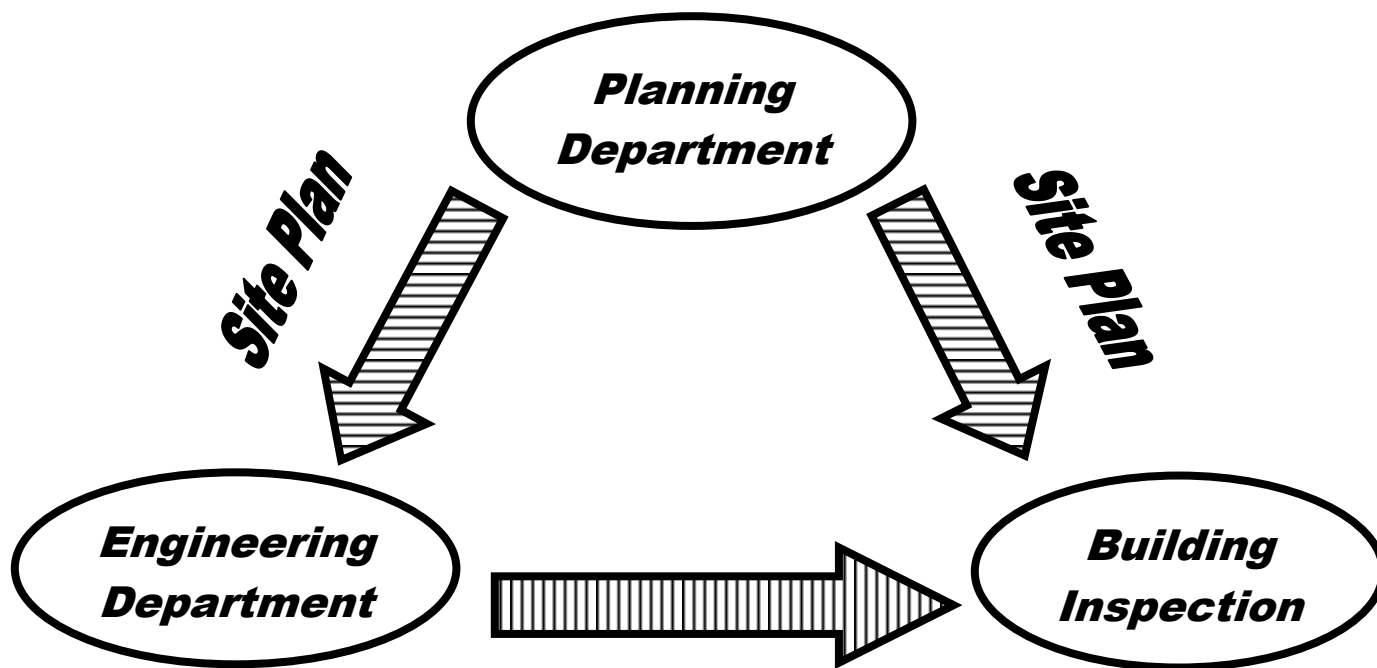

Dock doors in the RT district or dock doors that impact parking or circulation

Uses that trigger SUP or Residential Adjacency Requirements

Please consult the Planning staff as soon as possible to avoid potential delays to your project.
