FIRE AND POLICE
BENEFICIARIES FOR FINAL CHECK IN CASE OF DEATH

Chapter 143, Fire and Police Civil Service Law, provides that, should an employee die, all unpaid compensation due such employee at the time of his or her death shall be paid to the person or persons surviving at the date of death, in the following order or precedence, and such payment shall be a bar to recovery by any other person of amounts so paid.

First, to the beneficiary or beneficiaries designated by the employee, in writing, to receive such compensation filed with the Civil Service Commission prior to the employee's death;

Second, if there be no such beneficiary, to the widow or widower of such employee;

Third, if there be no such beneficiary or surviving spouse, to the child or children of such employee, and descendants of deceased children, by representation;

Fourth, if none of the above, to the parents of such employee, or the survivor of them;

Fifth, if there be none of the above, to the duly appointed legal representative of the estate of the deceased employee or, if there be none, to the person or persons determined to be entitled thereto under the laws of descent and distribution of the State of Texas.

I request that all unpaid compensation due payable by reason of my death be payable to the following beneficiary(ies):
