

Memories in the Making

This national art program sponsored by the Alzheimer’s Association gives people with dementia the ability to paint their thoughts, emotions and memories. The art becomes their voice. Visit this display to see artwork and the stories behind them. Presented in partnership with the Alzheimer’s Association of Greater Dallas. See companion classes below

Haggard November 1 - December 3

Art can enrich the lives of people with Alzheimer’s disease. Allow for self-expression and engagement, even after dementia has progressed

Connecting Through Creativity

Art enriches the lives of individuals, families, and communities. Active art-making and the creative process are a valuable part of the human experience that enhance expression and relationships

Presented by the Alzheimer’s Association
